

Company Sponsorship of a Michigan Ross MBA

Sponsoring an employee in Michigan Ross' Part-Time MBA Programs makes great sense for your company as well as your employee. Our program allows experienced professionals to gain a world-class MBA education while still working full time, with flexible formats specifically designed to meet the needs of the company as well as the student. Roughly half of our part-time students receive company sponsorship.

Key Benefits

- Three different formats—Weekend, Evening, or Online—allow your company and your employee to find the right balance of work and school.
- Your company substantially enhances its talent pool, with current employees receiving a top-ranked MBA education.
- The students you sponsor can immediately apply the lessons from their education to the workplace, improving their own performance as well as your company's ROI.
- Your company's network will expand through exposure to other top-tier classmates as well as nearly 50,000 Michigan Ross alumni.

Types of Potential Assistance

- Percentage sponsorship of tuition and fees, from 20%-100%.
- Specific dollar amount of sponsorship, capped per semester, year, course, or credit hour.
- Company promise of sponsorship with time commitment to company after degree completion.

Program Details

- The Weekend Program is a lockstep, cohort model where students are on campus for classes every other weekend. It also includes some distance learning. Classes run from 4-9 p.m. Friday and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The program is exactly two years in length.
- The Evening Program offers local candidates weekday evening classes starting around 6 or 7 p.m. and ending at 9 or 10 p.m. Students take a set of required core courses and a variety of electives of their choosing. It also includes some online course options. Most students finish in three or four years.
- The Online Program allows maximum flexibility. The curriculum includes a mix of streaming content, live online discussion, and residential immersion experiences. Students take a set of required core courses and a variety of electives of their choosing. Most students finish will finish in three or four years.
- Our signature MAP course—involving an immersive, real-world business challenge—is required in the Weekend and Online programs, and optional in the Evening program
