WE ARE MICHIGAN ROSS.

MASTER OF SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

WE ARE A COMMUNITY.

At Michigan Ross, you gain more than just a first-class business education — you become part of a community. A community overflowing with talent. A community of action-oriented leaders. Of collaborative, brilliant thinkers. A community that not only welcomes diversity, but thrives on it. A community of passionate people who support each other throughout their careers and lives.

Supply chain management is the central nervous system of the world economy. It is a strategic business function, essential for a company's survival and a key component of business operations. Supply chain management encompasses sourcing, manufacturing, distribution, logistics, inventory management, and customer relations. The business acumen and technical expertise you'll gain at Michigan Ross will prepare you for a rewarding career in this dynamic, exciting field.

Our 10-month, 30 credit-hour Master of Supply Chain Management Program is deeply rooted in analytics and provides broad exposure to the skills you need to emerge as a supply chain leader.

WE ARE INNOVATIVE.

Not all graduate supply chain programs are created equal. Our core curriculum is punctuated by meaningful activity at all stages of your experience, culminating with the Supply Chain Consulting Studio—an action-based consulting project with leading companies.

LEADERSHIP AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

A dedicated Career Development Office coach will help you craft a career search strategy that best meets your goals. You will also undertake training at the world-class Sanger Leadership Center, preparing you to navigate team dynamics and management roles.

BUSINESS BOOTCAMP

The MSCM Business Bootcamp is a rigorous introduction to all business disciplines—economics, finance, accounting, strategy, organizational behavior, marketing, and statistics. It takes place throughout the summer term and provides you with a fundamental grounding in business before you dive deep into end-to-end, global supply chain management.

SUPPLY CHAIN CONSULTING STUDIO

The Supply Chain Consulting Studio combines academic theory with real-world application. During the course, small teams are paired with a corporate sponsor to tackle a real-time, supply chain-related project within their company. Projects reinforce elements of your classroom instruction and results in a keen understanding of both the theory and practice of comprehensive supply chain strategies.

A group of five people, including men and women, are standing on a mezzanine level of a large industrial building. They are looking down at a complex manufacturing or assembly area below. The area is filled with machinery, conveyor belts, and various components. The lighting is bright, and the overall atmosphere is one of a modern, high-tech industrial environment.

WE KNOW SUCCESS.

As a Michigan Ross MSCM graduate, you will be ready for leadership roles in supply chain management and global operations. These skills are in high demand, and you'll find Ross MSCM alumni all over the world — Brazil, China, Singapore, India, the U.K., the Philippines, and all over the United States. A wide range of industries — technology, consulting, e-commerce, manufacturing — are hungry for MSCM talent. As a STEM-certified program, international students can hold OPT work authorization in the U.S. for up to 36 months.

WE ARE EMPOWERED.

With your ideal job at stake, devising a strategy and nailing the details becomes critical. From day one, your career coach is dedicated to your job search success. Career search activities are strategically woven throughout the program. You will refine your elevator pitch, resume, networking skills, and interview techniques while you learn how to identify and connect with potential employers.

Please note that the Admissions Committee reserves the right to request test scores if they feel it is necessary to better evaluate an application. Other admissions requirements remain the same. The GMAT/GRE requirement for future years will be shared when that information becomes available. Please contact RossOneYear@umich.edu with any questions or concerns.

WE ARE BUSINESS MASTERS.

At Michigan Ross, you can pursue the degree that fits your career goals and interests. We offer a suite of programs — nearly all of which have landed on top-five and top-ten lists in the U.S. We welcome you to explore your options at Michigan Ross:

MASTER OF ACCOUNTING

The Ross MAcc gives you invaluable leadership leverage, regardless of your career path. Our graduates accept positions around the world and have long-term careers ranging in fields from public accounting to management consulting to investment banking. In 2019, 95% of graduates received an offer within 3 months of graduation.

MASTER OF MANAGEMENT

For non-business majors who have completed their undergraduate studies less than two years ago, this 10-month program offers an action-based curriculum, high-impact leadership development, and a dynamic, purposely-designed career search preparation program to power your potential and help you land your ideal job.

MASTER OF SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

The supply chain is the central nervous system of any business, whether it's a local startup or global corporation. At Michigan Ross, you'll gain deep, functional, supply chain management expertise with the perspective of a general manager through a curriculum informed by top industry executives and world-class faculty.
