BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

for Transfer Applicants
When you come to Michigan Ross, you don’t just learn how to do business, you learn how to change it for the better.

You join a purpose-driven community that helps transform your individual passions and goals into the kind of change that makes a lasting impact. You turn bold ideas—like creating a startup to improve water quality in Pakistan, or reimagining what sustainability can look like on campus—into realities through an incredible network of resources, faculty, and alumni who offer boundless support. This is where you put theory into practice. This where the budgets are real, the stakes are high, and the opportunities, unparalleled. This is where you transform business from the inside out.
You’re going to love being part of the University of Michigan community. Welcome to Wolverine country.

Watch your step

Legend has it you’ll fail your first exam if you tread on the brass Block M in the center of the Diag. Do you really want to chance it?

LET’S DO BUSINESS.

There’s logic behind the phrase “do business.” It’s an active process — just like our curriculum. Leave Ross with real experience you’ll use to make an impact right away. The Michigan Ross curriculum throws you right into the action, excitement, and risk inherent in business. You’ll analyze strategy, embrace new perspectives, apply business concepts, pursue electives tailored to your interests, oversee projects, and build connections between business and society. After all, you don’t come to Michigan Ross to be a spectator. You come to be a leader.

Transfer admission is open to first-year students or sophomores enrolled in a college or university in the U.S. who have not completed a bachelor’s degree. Admission is selective, but we reserve 25 seats each year for external transfers.

Please note that due to the fixed nature of the BBA curriculum, all students commit three years to the program, which cannot be accelerated. A maximum of 45 non-business credits can apply toward completion of your BBA.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS FOR EXTERNAL TRANSFER ADMISSION

› Enroll full-time in your most recent year of college enrollment.
› Complete courses with a grade of C or better equivalent to:
  - U-M’s first-year writing requirement
  - Economics 101 (Microeconomics)
  - Calculus (Math 115)
  - Please see the U-M Transfer Equivalency Guide for information on how your credits will transfer: admissions.umich.edu/transfer-credit

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

PART 1: Submit completed Ross Transfer Application, which requires the following:

› BBA transfer application
  - This application is separate from the Common or Coalition Application and can be found on the Ross website.
  - The Common or Coalition Application is only necessary if you are interested in applying to other U-M academic units.
  - If you are interested in a U-M education regardless of admission to the Ross BBA Program, consider applying to other programs. Admissions decisions are made independently.

› Application Essay Questions
  - Please remember to demonstrate clear reasons why you are interested in the Michigan Ross BBA by providing specific examples that demonstrate your interests, experiences, and ability to engage with others.
Pre-requisite Course Syllabus
- Course syllabus or screenshot of the course description from your institution’s academic catalog for courses you believe to be equivalent to the three required prerequisites
- First-year writing
- Calculus
- Microeconomics

$75 Application fee
- Application fee waivers are available if you are currently receiving a Federal Pell Grant or if you are a current or former member of the U.S. military. Contact Ross Undergraduate Admissions atRossUndergrad@umich.edu for more information.

High school transcript
- Your final high school transcript must be sent directly from your high school to: Ross Undergraduate Admissions 700 East University Avenue Kresge Hall, K3521 Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1234
- Transcripts can be sent electronically toRossUndergrad@umich.edu
- College transcripts are NOT needed during this application step.

AP or IB scores (if applicable)
- Official test scores must be submitted directly from the testing agency to the University of Michigan’s Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Scores or credit earned at high school or college transcripts cannot be used to grant credit at U-M.

English language proficiency (required for non-native English speakers)
- You must submit your MELAB, TOEFL, IELTS, ECPE, CPE, or CAE examination score.
- For additional information regarding English proficiency requirements, visitadmissions.umich.edu/apply/international-students/exams-visas

PART 1: Submit completed Transfer Supplement, which requires the following:

College transcripts
- Upload an electronic copy of your final college transcripts from all institutions you have completed college credit. Must include grades from your most recent semester. Unofficial transcripts are acceptable for this portion of the application.
- If admitted, you will be required to submit official transcripts from all institutions where you completed college credit. To be considered official, transcripts must come directly from the institution(s) to Ross. You will also be asked for course syllabi that are not listed in the U-M Transfer Equivalency Guide.

PART 2: Submit completed Transfer Supplement, which requires the following:

College transcripts
- Upload an electronic copy of your final college transcripts from all institutions you have completed college credit. Must include grades from your most recent semester. Unofficial transcripts are acceptable for this portion of the application.
- If admitted, you will be required to submit official transcripts from all institutions where you completed college credit. YOUR JOURNEY TO ROSS: FROM INFO SESSIONS TO ORIENTATION

GET INFORMED
- Attend U-M Transfer Tuesday
  - Learn about additional opportunities available at U-M, and find out about transfer credit and financial aid.
- Attend a Ross Transfer Information Session
  - Check out our info sessions just for transfer students. You will learn more about the BBA program and transfer requirements, hear student stories, and get to know the Ross campus.
- Speak with a BBA Ambassador
  - Connect with Ross Undergraduate Admissions drop-in hours during the fall or winter semesters to speak with a current student.

MAKE A PLAN
Map out a plan to meet your academic requirements.

GET TO KNOW THE U-M TRANSFER EQUivalency Search tool. Visitadmissions.umich.edu/transfer-credit.

HELP YOUR FUTURE SELF by taking liberal arts courses that count toward Ross distribution requirements.
- Ross BBA students are required to complete three of four distribution areas: (1) Foreign language, (2) humanities, (3) social science, and (4) natural science and/or mathematical and symbolic analysis

STOP DEADLINES
- No business courses are accepted for transfer toward the Ross BBA. All business courses must be completed at Ross.
- Getting off course? Contact Ross Undergraduate Admissions to schedule an appointment.

PREP FOR YOUR APPLICATION AND ESSAYS
- Stand out from the crowd with outstanding academics, quality extracurriculars, and compelling essays.
- Think about how your interests and goals connect to the BBA curriculum.
- What have you learned from your extracurriculars? How well did you contribute and engage with others? Think about it before you write.

CHECK YOUR INBOX. REFRESH. REPEAT.
- Transfer admissions decisions are released via email by the end of June. Decisions are typically released on Fridays after 5 p.m. Check your junk and spam folders to ensure you receive your decision email.
- You will have one week to accept your decision. An enrollment deposit must be submitted to accept admission.
- You are required to attend transfer student orientation and Ross activities in July and August. Please limit your commitments to ensure availability for required programming.
INVEST IN YOUR FUTURE: FUNDING THE ROSS BBA

A high-quality education is an investment in your future. If your dreams include U-M, there are plenty of opportunities available to put your goals within reach. U-M students fund their education in a variety of ways, including financial aid and scholarships.

FINANCIAL AID
To be considered for financial aid, which includes a variety of grants, scholarships, and loans, you must submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) fafsa.ed.gov and the CSS Profile. You can begin submitting these Oct. 1.

Federal school code: 002325
CSS code: 1839

For additional information, contact the Office of Financial Aid at finaid.umich.edu

SCHOLARSHIPS
Michigan Ross offers a limited number of undergraduate merit and need-based scholarships. All incoming BBAs are considered for scholarships; no separate application is required. Selections are made based on criteria set by donors. Many scholarships require need, so we encourage students to complete the FAFSA.

Transfer scholarship recipients are notified over the summer. All selected students are notified via email. Ross Scholarships average around $5,000 and are very competitive.

We advise all students and families to make their decision to attend Ross without considering scholarship aid.
