When you come to Michigan Ross, you don’t just learn how to do business, you learn how to change it for the better.

You join a purpose-driven community that helps transform your individual passions and goals into the kind of change that makes a lasting impact. You turn bold ideas—like creating a startup to improve water quality in Pakistan, or reimagining what sustainability can look like on campus—into realities through an incredible network of resources, faculty, and alumni who offer boundless support.

This is where you put theory into practice. This where the budgets are real, the stakes are high, and the opportunities, unparalleled. This is where you transform business from the inside out.
You’re going to love being part of the University of Michigan community. Welcome to Wolverine country.

Go Blue!
Preferred salutation upon encountering other students, alums, or fans.

Watch your step
Legend has it you’ll fail your first exam if you tread on the brass Block M in the center of the Diag. Do you really want to chance it?

Big Network:
630,000+ U-M alumni
52,000+ Ross alumni in 111 countries

The Big House:
Also known as Michigan Stadium, it’s the largest stadium in the U.S. and home to the U-M football team.

HAIL:
Not the precipitation. See below.

Hail! to the victors valiant, Hail! to the conquering heroes, Hail! Michigan, the champions of the West!

What to Wear:
An ensemble of maize and/or blue is always a good choice. Wear block M ties, socks, jewelry, watches, or cuff links. Paint your face for football Saturdays.

What Not to Wear:
Red. Green. Enough said.

What to Tell Your Parents

LET’S DO BUSINESS.

There’s logic behind the phrase let’s “do business.” It’s an active process—just like our curriculum. The Michigan Ross curriculum throws you right into the action, excitement, and risk inherent in business, and gives you the opportunity to focus on what interests you most through a wide variety of elective courses. You’ll analyze strategy, embrace new perspectives, apply business concepts, oversee projects, and build connections between business and society. After all, you don’t come to Michigan Ross to be a spectator. You come to be a leader.

100+ Ways to make a social impact
LET’S GET REAL.

The world is ready for you—your ideas, passions, the changes you’ll make. With action-based learning, you’ll be ready for the real world.

“ROSS STUDENTS ARE INCREDIBLY SMART, HIGHLY MOTIVATED, BUT MORE IMPORTANTLY, I THINK JUST AS CONCERNED ABOUT MAKING A DIFFERENCE AS THEY ARE ABOUT MAKING A DOLLAR.”
Ross is an entrepreneurial paradise, with unparalleled support for your new business idea. Gain access to feedback and funding through competitions, courses, workshops, internships, and more.

Have you ever wanted to tell the likes of Cummins and U-M Athletics how to run their business? That’s exactly what you’ll do in our Capstone MAP course, just one example of how you can apply everything you’ve learned to complete a real-world project. Go beyond simulations and lead a real business or student organization. Responsibilities are real, expectations are high, and it’s up to you to deliver. Can you handle the pressure?

Want to start a game studio? Consult for a nonprofit company? Manage a real estate investment fund? There’s no time like the present. At Ross, you can start, advise, lead, and invest in real-world businesses right away. We call this Ross Experiences in Action-Based Learning – REAL.

Determine your appetite for risk — and reward — by getting involved with one of four student-led investment funds overseeing millions of dollars. Areas of focus include social impact and early stage ventures.

High school seniors apply for preferred admission to Michigan Ross through the Common Application or Coalition Application to the University of Michigan at admissions.umich.edu. The final deadline to apply is Feb. 1. Priority is given to applicants who apply to and submit all materials for the university’s Early Action deadline of Nov. 1. Admission is granted on a rolling basis from Feb. through April.

U-M students who have not previously considered business may apply to the BBA program as a cross-campus transfer. Students from other colleges and universities located in the United States may apply for external transfer admission. All transfer applicants apply through the Ross Transfer Application. The final deadline to apply is Mar. 31st. External transfer applicants must also submit the Transfer Supplement by June 1st. Admission decisions are released at the end of June.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

1. Submit a completed Common Application or Coalition Application, which requires the following:
   - The University of Michigan Supplement and Essay Questions
   - In the academic essay of the U-M Supplement, please remember to demonstrate clear reasons why you are interested in the Michigan Ross BBA, providing specific examples that demonstrate your interests, experiences, and ability to engage with others.

2. For the 2021-22 application cycle, students who are unable to provide standardized test scores are encouraged to apply and will not be disadvantaged in the application process. Applications will be reviewed with the information a student is able to provide. For more information on test score requirements and U-M’s policy for 2021-22, please visit http://myumi.ch/qgvwv.

3. Submit a Ross Admissions Portfolio through SlideRoom
   - The Common Application and Coalition Application have different steps to get to the Ross Admissions Portfolio. Submit at MichiganRossUndergrad.slideroom.com.
   - Please read our “Preparing your Portfolio” guide at michiganross.umich.edu/admissionsportfolio.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR EXTERNAL TRANSFER UNDERGRADUATES

1. Submit a complete Transfer Admission application through the Ross School of Business by March 31. The transfer application to Ross is not a part of the Common Application or Coalition Application. The application requires the following:
   • Ross School of Business Essay Questions – Please remember to demonstrate clear reasons why you are interested in the Michigan Ross BBA by providing specific examples that demonstrate your interests, experiences, and ability to engage with others.
   • Course syllabi for all three required prerequisites
   • $75 Application fee (external transfer only) or approved fee waiver request

2. For non-native speakers of English, send your TOEFL, MELAB, or IELTS scores to the University of Michigan-Ann Arbor directly from the testing agency.

3. Submit your final official high school transcript sent directly from your high school to Ross Undergraduate Admissions, 700 East University Avenue, Kresge Hall, K3521, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1234, or electronically to RossUndergrad@umich.edu.

4. Submit the Transfer Supplement, which requires electronic uploads of all transcripts from any post-secondary institution attended.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS FOR EXTERNAL TRANSFER ADMISSION

Complete courses with a grade of C or better equivalent to U-M’s College of Literature, Science, and the Arts first-year writing requirement; Economics 101; and Calculus (Math 115). Please see the U-M Transfer equivalency guide for information on how your credits will transfer: michiganross.umich.edu/transfercredits

You must enroll full-time in your most recent year of college enrollment, fall and winter terms, regardless of previous credits earned.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Michigan Ross offers a limited number of undergraduate merit and need-based scholarships. All incoming BBAs are considered for scholarships; no separate application is required. Selections are made based on criteria set by donors. Many scholarships require need, so we encourage students to complete the FAFSA.

Scholarship decisions for incoming direct admit students are made in the spring of the year the student is admitted. Transfer Scholarship recipients are notified over the summer. All selected students are notified via email. Ross Scholarships average around $5,000 and are very competitive. We advise all students and families to make their decision to attend Ross without considering scholarship aid.
