When you come to Michigan Ross, you don't just learn how to do business, you learn how to change it for the better.

You join a purpose-driven community that helps transform your individual passions and goals into the kind of change that makes a lasting impact. You turn bold ideas—like creating a startup to improve water quality in Pakistan, or reimagining what sustainability can look like on campus—into realities through an incredible network of resources, faculty, and alumni who offer boundless support.

This is where you put theory into practice. This is where the budgets are real, the stakes are high, and the opportunities, unparalleled. This is where you transform business from the inside out.

You're going to love being part of the University of Michigan community. Welcome to Wolverine country.

Legend has it you'll fail your first exam if you tread on the brass Block M in the center of the Diag. Do you really want to chance it?

Go Blue!

Preferred salutation upon encountering other students, alums, or fans.

What to Wear:

An ensemble of maize and/or blue is always a good choice. Wear block M ties, socks, jewelry, watches, or cuff links.

Paint your face for football Saturdays.

What Not to Wear:

Red. Green.

Big Network:

645,000+
U-M alumni

55,000+
Ross alumni in 104 countries

The Big House:

Also known as Michigan Stadium, it's the largest stadium in the U.S. and home to the U-M football team.

WALKING THE WALK

LET'S DO BUSINESS.

There's logic behind the phrase let's "do business." It's an active process—just like our curriculum. The Michigan Ross curriculum throws you right into the action, excitement, and risk inherent in business, and gives you the opportunity to focus on what interests you most through a wide variety of elective courses. You'll analyze strategy, embrace new perspectives, apply business concepts, oversee projects, and build connections between business and society. After all, you don't come to Michigan Ross to be a spectator. You come to be a leader.

THE FIXED CORE

First Year

- › First-year writing requirement
- › Foundations in Learning Business
- › Intro to Business Communication
- › Economics 101
- › Calculus I, II, or III
- › U-M distribution and integrating liberal arts

Sophomore Year

FALL

- › Businesses & Leaders: The Positive Differences
- › Financial Accounting
- › Business Analytics & Statistics

WINTER

- › Managerial Accounting
- › Business Strategy
- › Begin the floating core

Junior Year

FALL (INTEGRATIVE SEMESTER)

- › Communication Strategies

- › Electives

WINTER

- › Capstone course
- › Electives

In business, you'll work alongside people who are different from you—in terms of race, geography, personality, income, talent, gender identity, and disability status. To prepare you to leverage these differences to foster innovation and success, curricular requirements focused on identity and diversity in organizations are integrated throughout the fixed core.

THE FLOATING CORE:

While most of your required core business courses are taken at set times, floating core classes can be taken anytime between the winter of your sophomore year and fall of senior year.

- › Applied Economics
- › Financial Management
- › Marketing Management
- › Business Information Systems

CURRICULUM THEMES

- › Coaching and Advising
- › Foundations
- › Global Experiences
- › Leadership
- › Positive Business
- › 360° Thinking
- › Learn by Doing: REAL.
- › Inclusive Leaders Pathway

Want to start a game studio? Consult for a nonprofit company? Manage a real estate investment fund? There's no time like the present. At Ross, you can start, advise, lead, and invest in real-world businesses right away. We call this Ross Experiences in Action-Based Learning – REAL.

REAL | ROSS EXPERIENCES IN ACTION-BASED LEARNING

REAL.START

Ross is an entrepreneurial paradise, with unparalleled support for your new business idea. Gain access to feedback and funding through competitions, courses, workshops, internships, and more.

REAL.ADVISE

Have you ever wanted to tell the likes of Cummins and U-M Athletics how to run their business? That's exactly what you'll do in our Capstone MAP course, just one example of how you can apply everything you've learned to complete a real-world project.

REAL.INVEST

Determine your appetite for risk — and reward — by getting involved with one of four student-led investment funds overseeing millions of dollars. Areas of focus include social impact and early stage ventures.

REAL.LEAD

Go beyond simulations and lead a real business or student organization. Responsibilities are real, expectations are high, and it's up to you to deliver. Can you handle the pressure?

FACT:

You're going to be more successful if you love what you do.

Find what you love. Do that.

“THERE ARE MANY OPPORTUNITIES TO GET INVOLVED IN ROSS AND DISCOVER PATHS YOU NEVER KNEW YOU WERE INTERESTED IN. SO, EMBRACE YOUR CURIOSITY AND FIND CLUBS AND PROGRAMS THAT YOU’RE PASSIONATE ABOUT, BECAUSE THOSE ARE THE ONES THAT WILL ALLOW YOU TO LEAVE A LASTING IMPACT AND BUILD MEANINGFUL CONNECTIONS!”

Electives and activities outside of class let you explore the areas of business that speak to you. Ignite your passion in courses such as Digital Marketing, FinTech Innovations, Advanced Analytics For Management Consulting, Strategies for Sustainable Development; or get involved with one of our many centers and institutes focused on specific business topics.

JOIN THE CLUBS

Find what inspires you and put your leadership skills to work by joining one of dozens of student clubs. # Apply.

High school seniors apply for preferred admission to Michigan Ross through the Common Application to the University of Michigan at admissions.umich.edu. The final deadline to apply is Feb. 1. Priority is given to applicants who apply to and submit all materials for the university's Early Action deadline of Nov. 1. Admission is granted on a rolling basis from Feb. through April.

U-M students who have not previously considered business may apply to the BBA program as a cross-campus transfer. Students from other colleges and universities located in the United States may apply for external transfer admission. All transfer applicants apply through the Ross Transfer Application. The final deadline to apply is Mar. 31st. External transfer applicants must also submit the Transfer Supplement by June 1st. Admission decisions are released at the end of June.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

1. Submit a completed Common Application which requires the following:
  - › The University of Michigan Supplement and Essay Questions
  - In the academic essay of the U-M Supplement, please remember to demonstrate clear reasons why you are interested in the Michigan Ross BBA, providing specific examples that demonstrate your interests, experiences, and ability to engage with others.
  - › $75 Application fee (or fee waiver request) and $5 fee to submit portfolio

- › Counselor Recommendation and School Report
  - › High School Transcript
  - › One Additional Letter of Recommendation
  - › SAT or ACT test scores, if you choose to submit (please see admissions.umich.edu for more information on the university's Test Flexible Policy)
  - › TOEFL, IELTS, ECPE, CAE or CPE, PTE Academic, or MET examination scores (for non-native speakers of English)
2. Students who wish to have an ACT/SAT score considered as a part of their application should self-report their ACT/SAT score on their application or through Enrollment Connect. Students who are unable to provide standardized test scores are encouraged to apply and will not be disadvantaged in the application process. Applications will be reviewed with the information a student is able to provide. For more information on test score requirements and U-M's policy for 2022-23, please visit <http://myumi.ch/qgww>

3. Submit a Ross Admissions Portfolio through SlideRoom

SCHOLARSHIPS

Michigan Ross offers a limited number of undergraduate merit and need-based scholarships. All incoming BBAs are considered for scholarships; no separate application is required. Selections are made based on criteria set by donors. Many scholarships are need-based, which require students to complete the FAFSA by March 31.

Scholarship decisions for incoming direct admit students are made in the spring of the year the student is admitted. Transfer scholarship recipients are notified over the summer. All selected students are notified via email. Ross Scholarships average around $5,000 and are very competitive. We advise all students and families to make their decision to attend Ross without considering scholarship aid.
