Becoming Who You Really Are: How to Grow Yourself and Your Organization

Available in five, separate 4-week (20-day) chapters

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Watch. In this unique learning journey, you will get an email each day that links to a 3-5 minute video. In that video, MI Ross renowned Professor Robert Quinn shares an inspiring story from his 40 years of working with global organizations worldwide.

Reflect. Each story is followed by two simple questions. You post your answers to your online community.

Consolidate. Each week you consolidate - squeeze the learning of each day into a single statement of learning for the week.

Transform. Share your successes and transform each member of your learning community with aspiration. As you do you turn individual leadership development into organizational change.

Results. After 4 weeks of this process, you will have started to ingrain perspectives, develop new practices, and build new habits of interaction with colleagues, friends, and family. Experience how these changes will begin to transform your life, your relationships, and the impact you have on others.

PROGRAM STRUCTURE:

This online course is one of five, separate 4-week course chapters. Each 4-week (20-day) chapter is available to take individually or may be combined together to create up to a 100-day plan. Enjoy one month, or five months at a time in the order of your choosing. For added flexibility, you can align chapter topics in the order that best meets your individual or team growth and development needs.
