TOP 5 GLOBAL PROVIDER
Financial Times, 2019
Apply a new ‘digital’ framework to your current successes.

Pressure to achieve transformative results in marketing have never been greater. The digital landscape adds layers of complication to the already complex nature of our business. The ubiquity of technology and the advent of the social web have made it theoretically easier to reach target audiences but simultaneously more difficult to ‘break through.’ This shift has challenged conventional approaches to marketing communications and put more emphasis on leveraging digital media alternatives. This program provides a perspective, developed by faculty experts and award-winning marketing practitioners (see bios, page three), that empowers leaders and organizations to thrive in today’s digital-world by turbocharging their marketing efforts with ideas that move people. Here you will experience a transformative approach that will help your brand elevate from the “day to day” tactics of digital and social media to lay the foundation for building campaign strategies that create deep connections to your consumers — in both the B to B and B to C industries alike. Participants will head back to work on Monday morning prepared to disrupt long-standing marketing practices (with questionable outcomes) with new, creative thinking and actionable opportunities for your brand.

N.E.T.S. CONCEPT FOR DIGITAL AGE MARKETING

Leverage fundamental human behavior and new technology to drive business results. At the intersection of these two lies a sweet spot where perceptive marketers can leverage the ever-evolving media landscape to create ideas, messages, products, and behaviors that spread from person to person. N.E.T.S. represents:

N = Apply human Networks to a digital world
E = Capitalize on the Environment in which these networks live
T = Determine which tools instruments, and Technology will best activate people in these networks
S = What metrics measure the Success of marketing efforts in the digital age

INDIVIDUAL BENEFITS

- Rejuvenate your passion for marketing through new lenses and perspectives on marketing strategy
- Apply a structured approach to ignite your unique business differentiators to inspire your target market to action
- Energize and align your team by applying new approaches to drive customer interest – and loyalty

ORGANIZATIONAL BENEFITS

- Demystify and apply what makes the world’s most popular brands tick
- Exploit new opportunities to identify and reach new target audiences
- Develop metrics to predict and measure the impact of your marketing campaigns
- Plan of action and practices to be shared with the team
WHO SHOULD ATTEND:
• Brand managers seeking new thinking and proven, meaningful approaches
• Marketers experiencing stagnated results, or with aggressive growth goals
