BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

for Transfer Applicants
When you come to Michigan Ross, you don’t just learn how to do business, you learn how to change it for the better.

You join a purpose-driven community that helps transform your individual passions and goals into the kind of change that makes a lasting impact. You turn bold ideas — like helping Whirlpool define the future of connectivity in the home, or shipping billions of unused medical supplies overseas — into realities through an incredible network of resources, faculty, and alumni who offer boundless support. This is where you put theory into practice. This is where the budgets are real, the stakes are high, and the opportunities, unparalleled. This is where you transform business from the inside out.

“WHEN I COMMITTED TO ROSS, I WAS ALSO COMMITTING TO A STIMULATING ACADEMIC ENVIRONMENT THAT EVERYDAY I FIND MYSELF EXCITED TO ENGAGE WITH: ONE THAT FACILITATES MEANINGFUL, IMPACTFUL EXPERIENCES AND VALUES OF PURPOSE-DRIVEN BUSINESS. EVERY PEER, MENTOR, CLASS, AND ORGANIZATION I INTERACT WITH ADDS FRESH IMPETUS TO MY DESIRE TO PURSUE BUSINESS. THE PERSON I AM NOW IS STRIDES MORE CONFIDENT AND CAPABLE THAN THE PERSON I WAS THAT FIRST SEMESTER, AND I CREDIT ROSS FOR THAT DIFFERENCE.”

There’s logic behind the phrase let’s “do business.” It’s active—just like our curriculum. The Michigan Ross curriculum throws you right into the action, risk, and excitement inherent in business, and gives you the opportunity to focus on what interests you most through a wide variety of elective courses. You’ll analyze strategy, embrace new perspectives, apply business concepts, oversee projects, and build connections between business and society. After all, you don’t come to Michigan Ross to be a spectator. You come to be a leader.
The world is ready for you—your ideas, passions, the changes you’ll make. With action-based learning, you’ll be ready for the real world.

“ROSS STUDENTS ARE INCREDIBLY SMART, HIGHLY DRIVEN, BUT MORE IMPORTANTLY, I THINK JUST AS MOTIVATED TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE AS THEY ARE TO MAKE A DOLLAR.”

DAVID WOOTEN
Alfred L. Edwards Collegiate Professor, University Diversity and Social Transformation Professor & Professor of Marketing
Ross is an entrepreneurial paradise, with unparalleled support for your new business idea. Gain access to feedback and funding through competitions, courses, workshops, internships, and more.

REAL START

Have you ever wanted to tell the likes of Cummins and U-M Athletics how to run their business? That’s exactly what you’ll do in our Capstone MAP course, just one example of how you can apply everything you’ve learned to complete a real-world project.

REAL ADVISE

Determine your appetite for risk — and reward — by getting involved with one of our student-led investment funds overseeing millions of dollars. Areas of focus include real estate and early stage ventures.

REAL INVEST

Go beyond simulations and lead a real business or student organization. Responsibilities are real, expectations are high, and it’s up to you to deliver.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

PART 1: Submit completed Ross Transfer Application, which requires the following:

> BBA transfer application
  - This application is separate from the Common Application and can be found on the Ross website.
  - The Common Application is only necessary if you are interested in applying to other U-M academic units.
  - If you are interested in a U-M education regardless of admission to the Ross BBA Program, consider applying to other programs. Admissions decisions are made independently.

> Application Essay Questions
  - Please remember to demonstrate clear reasons why you are interested in the Michigan Ross BBA by providing specific examples that demonstrate your interests, experiences, and ability to engage with others.

> Pre-requisite Course Syllabus
  - Course syllabus or screenshot of the course description from your institution’s academic catalog for courses you believe to be equivalent to the three required prerequisites:
    - First-year writing
    - Calculus, statistics
    - Microeconomics

PART 2: Submit completed Transfer Supplement by June 1, which requires the following:

> College transcripts
  - Upload an electronic copy of your final college transcripts from all institutions you have completed college credit. Must include grades from your most recent semester. Unofficial transcripts are acceptable for this portion of the application. Submitting grades within the Transfer Supplement can only be done once. Please wait to submit your Transfer Supplement until you have uploaded all of your grades, and be sure to submit by the June 1 deadline.
  - If admitted, you will be required to submit official transcripts from all institutions where you completed college credit. To be considered official, transcripts must come directly from the institution(s) to Ross. You will also be asked for course syllabi that are not listed in the U-M Transfer Equivalency Guide.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS FOR EXTERNAL TRANSFER ADMISSION

> Enroll full-time in your most recent year of college enrollment.
> Complete courses with a grade of C- or better equivalent to:
  - U-M’s first year writing requirement (or the Sweetland Center for Writing Petition for Transfer Credit)
  - Economics 101 (Microeconomics)
  - Calculus (Math 115)
> Please see the U-M Transfer Equivalency Guide for information on how your credits will transfer:

$75 Application fee
- Application fee waivers are available if you are currently receiving a Federal Pell Grant, if you are a current or former member of the U.S. military, demonstrate financial need, or for in-state students attending a Michigan community college.

High school transcript
- Your final high school transcript must be sent directly from your high school to:
  Ross Undergraduate Admissions
  700 East University Avenue
  Kresge Hall, K3521
  Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1234
  - Transcripts can be sent electronically to RossUndergrad@umich.edu
  - College transcripts are NOT needed during this application step.

AP or IB scores (if applicable)
- Official test scores must be submitted directly from the testing agency to the University of Michigan’s Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Scores or credit shown on high school or college transcripts cannot be used to grant credit at U-M.

English language proficiency (required or non-native English speakers)
- You must submit your MET, TOEFL, IELTS, ECPE, CPE, or CAE examination score.
- For additional information regarding English proficiency requirements, visit admissions.umich.edu/apply/international-students/exams-visas

Please request your high school transcripts and required test scores as early as possible to ensure they are received by the deadline.
YOUR JOURNEY TO ROSS: FROM INFO SESSIONS TO ORIENTATION

GET INFORMED

› Attend U-M Transfer events
  - Learn about additional opportunities available at U-M, and find out about transfer credit and financial aid.
› Attend a Ross Transfer Information Session
  - Check out our info sessions just for transfer students. You will learn more about the BBA program and transfer requirements and get to know the Ross campus.
› Speak with a BBA Ambassador
  - Connect with Ross Undergraduate Admissions drop-in hours during the fall or winter semesters to speak with a current student.

MAKE A PLAN

Map out a plan to meet your academic requirements.

› Get to know the U-M Transfer Equivalency Search tool. Visit transfercredit.ugadmiss.umich.edu.
› Keep all course descriptions and syllabi. You may need to verify courses upon admission.
› Help your future self by taking liberal arts courses that count toward Ross distribution requirements.
  - Ross BBA students are required to complete three of four distribution areas: (1) Foreign language, (2) humanities, (3) social science, and (4) natural science and/or mathematical and symbolic analysis
  - No business courses are accepted for transfer toward the Ross BBA. All business courses must be completed at Ross.
› Getting off course? Contact Ross Undergraduate Admissions to schedule an appointment.

PREP FOR YOUR APPLICATION AND ESSAYS

› Stand out from the crowd with outstanding academics, quality extracurriculars, and compelling essays.
› Think about how your interests and goals connect to the BBA curriculum.
› What have you learned from your extracurriculars? How well did you contribute and engage with others? Think about it before you write.

CHECK YOUR INBOX. REFRESH. REPEAT.

› Transfer admissions decisions are released via email by the end of June. Decisions are typically released on Fridays after 5 p.m. Check your junk and spam folders to ensure you receive your decision email.
› You will have one week to accept your decision. An enrollment deposit must be submitted to accept admission.
› You are required to attend transfer student orientation and Ross activities in July and August. Please limit your commitments to ensure availability for required programming.

FINANCIAL AID

To be considered for financial aid, which includes a variety of grants, scholarships, and loans, you must submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) fafsa.ed.gov and the CSS Profile. You can begin submitting these Oct. 1.

Federal school code: 002525
CSS code: 1839

For additional information, contact the Office of Financial Aid at finaid.umich.edu

SCHOLARSHIPS

All incoming BBAs are considered for scholarships; no separate application is required. Selections are made based on criteria set by donors. Many scholarships are need-based, which require students to complete the FAFSA by Mar. 31.

Transfer scholarship recipients are notified over the summer. All selected students are notified via email. Ross Scholarships average around $5,000 and are very competitive. We advise all students and families to make their decision to attend Ross without considering scholarship aid.
