Stern Consulting Corps
An Action Learning Program at NYU Stern

The Stern Consulting Corps (SCC) is a hands-on experiential learning opportunity that allows students to work in teams to tackle a business issue or opportunity for a client while applying in real time the key steps of the consulting process and the core MBA skills they are learning in the classroom.

Since SCC’s inception in 2002, over 1,500 MBA students have partnered with a large and diverse group of for- and not-profit organizations, leveraging NYU Stern’s location in New York City, the center of global business. These organizations span a range of industries and our structured approach to consulting allows for successful problem-solving across disciplines.

Client Perspective

“Working with the team at NYU was rewarding on so many levels. They brought a fresh perspective and offered intelligent recommendations. On a personal level, I enjoyed mentoring the next generation and look forward to doing it again.”

Ann Gilligan, Director of Marketing
Eileen Fisher Inc.

Our Approach to Problem Solving

Taught by top NYU Stern faculty, students take our “Consulting Practice: Process and Problem Solving” course while simultaneously working on their live SCC project, allowing them to seamlessly integrate knowledge with practice and leave the experience confident in their problem solving abilities.