The University of Michigan invites nominations and applications for the Edward J. Frey Dean of the Stephen M. Ross School of Business. Regularly ranked among the top 10 business schools in the world, the Ross School of Business capitalizes on the broad excellence of the University of Michigan, an institution that excels in socially relevant, cross-functional research with rich intra-campus and external business relations. The Ross School manages a broad portfolio of degree programs including BBA; minor in business; full-time, evening, weekend, Executive MBA (offered in Ann Arbor and Los Angeles), Global MBA; Master of Supply Chain Management; Master of Management (with cohorts in Ann Arbor and Shanghai); Master of Accounting; and Ph.D. Total enrollment for Fall, 2014 was 3,353: 1,510 undergraduate and 1,843 graduate students.

The Dean is the chief academic and administrative officer of the Ross School, responsible to the Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs for oversight and quality of all of the School’s academic and research programs. The Dean of the Ross School will have overall responsibility for defining the School’s strategic priorities; recruiting and maintaining a faculty of excellence; creating and supporting educational programs of the highest quality; attracting excellent students; creating collaborative opportunities with other schools and departments within the University; and enhancing productive relationships with alumni, donors, and local, national and international communities.

The successful candidate will be tenurable at the full professor level in the Ross School of Business, and possess the vision, talent, and energy to build on the Ross School’s legacy of academic excellence, providing an environment for faculty, students, staff and alumni to continue to make a profound impact in business and society. The Dean will be a champion of the School as a community of scholars, teachers and leaders, and will be seen as the School’s leading supporter of its core strengths and values, including a commitment to diversity. The new Dean will inspire a dynamic and innovative academic culture appropriate for a changing world.

All applications and nominations will be held in the strictest of confidence. Review of potential candidates will begin immediately. Applications should include a formal letter of interest and curriculum vitae. If possible, nominations should also include a resume or curriculum vitae. Please email applications and nominations to:

Email: UMichRoss@kornferry.com
Ken Kring, Senior Client Partner
Korn/Ferry International
1835 Market Street, Suite 2000
Philadelphia, PA 19103

The University of Michigan is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.