Academic calendar 2015-2016

RSM courses are based on the three-term trimester. Visiting exchange students are welcome for 1, 2 or 3 trimesters.

Trimester 1: end of August or first week of September to end of November or December

Trimester 2: beginning of January to mid-March

Trimester 3: end of March to end of June

Students are expected to stay at RSM until they have completed their final exams. All exam re-sits take place in Rotterdam in July. Students can decide if they want to keep this option available. If so, they will need to stay longer in Rotterdam. It is not possible to arrange scheduled exams or re-sits for other dates, times or places, nor to make special arrangements with teaching staff. Students are not permitted to arrive late for the Exchange Programme. All exchange students must attend the compulsory introduction programme in autumn and spring. In autumn, this takes place one week prior to the start of the Bachelor Exchange Programme. In spring it takes place, during the first week of Trimester 2.

Curriculum

Courses

Bachelor exchange students can choose courses from curriculum of the Bachelor of Science in International Business Administration (BScIBA), see also: <https://courses.eur.nl/#/>, select "Rotterdam School of Management" and then "BSc Incoming Exchange".

Course Manuals

Course manuals can be found on the Current Students webpage: <http://www.rsm.nl/information-for/current-students/bachelor-iba/>.

Minors

In Trimester 1, exchange students can also participate in one minor lasting for 10 weeks with a workload of 15 ECTS.

Minors offered at RSM can be found here: www.rsm.nl/bachelor/rsm-minors/.

International business: the Dutch way

This course has been specially designed for exchange students to introduce them to the Dutch business environment and its economic and cultural settings. Economic analyses are examined and discussed in the context of European and Dutch cultures. Special attention is given to recent developments in large international companies located in the Netherlands. Students will become familiar with several Dutch companies, each showing a different aspect of doing international business in the Netherlands, and will work on an assignment for each one. There are two types of mandatory assignments in this course; small assignments to prepare for company visits and two large assignments in the form of business challenges, linked to guest lectures from two large Dutch companies. This course is offered in spring only. In the future it might be offered in fall as well.

Courses at other faculties

Next to the courses at RSM, you will have the option to select a course from one of the other schools at Erasmus University (school of Economics and Medicine excluded). The course offer per school will be mentioned on the Course Registration Form which will be send to the selected student.

Course registration

Students will receive instructions for registering for courses after they have been admitted to the Exchange Programme.

Learning expectations: course workload and examinations

Language of instruction: All courses are taught in English.

The full-time workload is 20 ECTS per trimester, equivalent to 560 study hours. The minimum workload for bachelor exchange students is 15 ECTS per trimester, and the maximum is 30 ECTS. This is non-negotiable. Exams are taken at the end of each course. Assessments are based on written or take-home exams, progress reports, in-class presentations, group performance and essays.

All re-sits take place during July in Rotterdam. It is not possible to take re-sits at any other time or in other locations. It may be permissible for exchange students to do re-sits at their home university in exceptional circumstances if the student makes a written application, in good time, to the manager of the Bachelor Exchange Programme. It must be proven that taking the re-sit in Rotterdam is not possible. An internship or tickets for early travel do not count as exceptions:

- The re-sit must be taken at exactly the same day and time as in Rotterdam;
- The home university must co-ordinate and supervise the exam.

Class format and profile

International Business Administration classrooms have a truly international and multicultural atmosphere. Students from all over the world, representing more than 80 nationalities, mix with each other and with our international staff. Students learn to look at business problems from different cultural angles and to research thoroughly and systematically.

Grading

The Dutch grading system uses grades 1 to 10, with 1 being the lowest and 10 the best. Grades are generally given to one decimal place. Grades with a 0.4 or lower will be rounded down, and grades with a 0.5 or more will be rounded up. Transcripts from students in our exchange programmes will show grades to one decimal place.

Buddy system and student life

The International Office works with a buddy system. The International Office also organises an introduction programme including workshops and dinners.

There are also meet-ups for social drinks, cultural excursions and parties organised throughout the whole exchange programme. Exchange students can expect fellow students of more than 50 nationalities from our network of more than 100 leading business schools all over the world. Students can connect with other current exchange students by joining the Facebook group RSM Exchange Students 2015-2016.

The Erasmus Student Network, ESN-Rotterdam organises lots of activities, events and city trips for international students studying at Erasmus University Rotterdam. ESN-Rotterdam is also responsible for organising the pick-up service from Schiphol Airport. All international students are introduced to ESN by e-mail before they travel to the Netherlands.

ESN-Rotterdam's activities are posted on their Facebook page and at our university's website:
