Stylish. Cosmopolitan. Stunning. Spain’s second largest city offers the perfect blend of historic and modern, combining medieval Gothic charm with thriving immigrant cultures, Gaudí’s quirky architectural creations, and world-class dining and shopping. While studying abroad in Barcelona, you’ll take classes at the CEA Barcelona Center and the University of Vic – Central University of Catalonia.

“Studying abroad is, in itself, quintessential active learning. Especially for those who are studying the language, culture or history of the country in which they live, studying abroad truly is the way one takes control of their learning. From getting groceries to speaking with people all over the world, we are learning new skills and concepts just in our normal, day-to-day interactions.”
- Danielle Zolotnitsky
